National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) publications include weekly, monthly, quarterly, and annual estimates of production, stocks, inventories, dispositions, utilization, and process of agricultural commodities and other items. Other census reports include the Agricultural Atlas, Agricultural Economics & Land Ownership, Aquaculture, Census History, Congressional Tabulations, Farm & Ranch Irrigation, Horticulture Specialties, and Outlying Areas.

Economic Research Service (ERS) Situation and Outlook Reports and periodicals analyze the current situation and forecast market conditions. ERS monographs offer economic analysis in the area of trade, production, rural development, farm inputs, and other topics.
